REFERENCE

1. For the past several months the station has been receiving from the U.S. escapee program (USCP) office a number of requests for checks on recent refugees (i.e., escapees since 1956) who have applied to that office for aid and assistance. The latter has been handled promptly through [] and the results--mostly negative--reported to the requesting office.

2. The latest group of requests contained several names which were familiar to the station as longtime residents of Stalingrad. Consequently, it was with some surprise that we noted on their application blanks that their dates of entry into Belgium were given as 1956 and 1957, and that they were applying (again) for assistance from a U.S. program. They are:

A. Irene Isak (Sadieler), USCP (b. 25 May 1913, Budapest, and his wife Estalin [?], nee [?], b. 10 Sep 1922, Budapest). Incidentally, [] report identified USCP as the "Peter STAK" who formerly wrote articles for the anti-communist "VILLAGE" in Brussels.

B. Polono [?]

C. Michel SZIB (b. 6 Dec 1924, [?]). According to the Antwerp Consulate General, SZIB was refused a visa in 1951 on grounds of homosexuality.

3. Copies of the memoranda written by the USCP on the above identities and copies of the USCP lead sheets are enclosed. A copy of the memorandum on József [?], [] is also enclosed.
